Agreement and Signature

I understand that this is an application to attend the self-advocate retreat and does not guarantee that I will be accepted to attend. If accepted, I must be a minimum of 18, independently manage all self-care needs, must demonstrate appropriate adult behavior without significant direction, consistently follow directions from a variety of people in a variety of locations, and have a desire to participate in such a group.

Parent Form

Please answer the following questions about your child who is applying to attend the Self-Advocate retreat. Please answer as honestly as possible keeping the following information in mind:

- Your self-advocate must be 18 years old or older to attend.
- Your self-advocate will travel for two and a half hours by bus to the camp.
- Your self-advocate will share a room and must be able to dress themselves and take care of all their personal hygiene independently.
- Your self-advocate must be able to follow directions from multiple people in a variety of environments.
- Your self-advocate must be able to demonstrate appropriate adult behavior without significant behavior issues. They will have camp rules to follow and if they break the rules, you will be responsible for picking them up.
- Your self-advocate must be able to stand and walk independently (indoors and outdoors) for up to 45 minutes to an hour for camp programming.
- Your self-advocate will be required to participate in all programming and will not have access to their cell phone while at the camp. We will provide all parents/caregivers with an emergency number.

Why do you want your self-advocate to attend the retreat?

Do they have any significant health issues or medical conditions? (include allergies)

Please provide us with any details about the self-advocate that will help us to deal with any behavior issues or concerns.

Anything else we should know?

Please email this form to whitney@dspnt.org. Application deadline is March 1st.
